

Ergodyne® Bump Cap

PLS2052 Fits any Hat, 1 each

Protect your head from worker-generated impacts and other minor head injuries by inserting this lightweight, universal bump cap into any baseball hat or other headwear.

- With flexible sides and trim-to-fit customization, this bump cap insert fits easily into a variety of hats/caps as well as onto a range of head shapes
- Made of lightweight, durable polypropylene
- Designed with maximum ventilation for breathable airflow that doesn't compromise protection
- Best used in spaces where worker-generated impact head protection is needed, such as around low ceilings, beams, low pipes and other bump hazards
- Ideal for mechanics, airline baggage handlers, factory workers, in-home service workers and other jobs that do not require safety hard hat protection; not bulky like hard hat
- Does NOT replace a hard hat where required
