

Albion Engineering B26 Manual Cartridge Caulking Gun

PTY1340 For 10 oz. Tubes

Easily and quickly dispenses thick, viscous materials and adhesives. No-drip caulking gun is more powerful than a standard caulking gun.

- High-thrust (26:1) manual caulking gun is perfect for dispensing of thicker materials and adhesives packaged in universal or peeler-style cartridges
- Full-sized handle for comfort; precise, consistent dispensing with less hassle
- User friendly; half-cradle carriage securely holds cartridges and rotates for convenience
- Built-in cartridge puncture wire and ladder hook pull
- Use with 1/10 gallon (10 oz) or 300 ml cartridges
